The $150.00 charge is for all Open Water check out dives. See details on back.

Open Water Costs

The $150.00 per person charge includes all of the Open Water check out dives. If you miss a day of diving, you must return to the lake on another weekend to complete your certification.

Sign Up

Sign up for the Open Water dives in advance so you don't miss out on a particular weekend. A $50.00 deposit is required to reserve your spot. Open water deposits are refundable up to 8 days prior to the open water check-out dives.

Hotel Reservations

Don't forget to make your hotel reservation well in advance. Branson and Eureka Springs can get pretty busy during the summer months. The Dive Shop staff can make recommendations on hotel accommodations.

Equipment Required

You must have your own mask, fins and snorkel for the weekend. And, don't forget to bring your log book to the lake. During the spring, early summer and fall, you will either need to purchase your own wetsuit or you can rent one at the shop. If you have not had the time to purchase your own BCD, Regulator set you may rent ours for the weekend.

Equipment Pick Up

You can pick up your BCD, regulator system, tank and weights on the Wednesday, Thursday or Friday before your Open Water weekend. You must return the gear on Monday before closing time at 6 pm.

The staff at the shop will provide you with directions and a map to the lake when you pick up your gear. Table Rock Lake is near Branson, Missouri and Beaver Lake is near Eureka Springs, Arkansas.

Other Recommendations

We suggest bringing a cooler for snacks, lunch and beverages on Saturday at the dive site. And, don't forget your swimsuit, towel and sunscreen. You might also want to bring a lawn chair or you can just sit on a rock! Also bring a light jacket and hat or sweatshirt depending on the weather because you might be a little chilled when you get out of the water.
